'I must admit I was excited and flattered when your photographer asked me if I would pose for your magazine – I've read a few issues of Club and other "girlie" magazines, but without a doubt the most beautiful girls are the ones you use.

'Also, you have a great reputation for what you've done with the celebrity nudes you print. I think it's great that someone has the guts to show these famous people that we're all alike underneath it all.' ♣

Lydia

Photographs by Fanny

'There was a song out a few months ago which went along the lines that Lydia was a very difficult lady to understand. I would like to think that applied to me – after all, a woman likes a bit of mystery about her. It's no fun always to be regarded as predictable or boring.

'Every woman has her moods and should be treated accordingly. Sometimes she wants romance, sometimes violent passion, and sometimes . . . well that's for my lover to find out. It's a plus when you find a man who can define your moods – and help ease them.' ♣

Marie

Photographs by Rupert Daines

'I hope your readers think I'm attractive enough not to lead the usual exciting life which your models seem to live. I've never jumped from an aeroplane, or driven a fast sports car or sailed in a beautiful yacht.

'I've never worked as a bullfighter or a croupier, and I don't have a string of bronze muscular boyfriends whose only purpose in life is to give me never ending orgasms. But strange as it may seem, I lead quite an enjoyable life. Going for a few beers with my guy, eating hamburgers on the beach and getting my nose covered in mustard.'

That sort of lifestyle certainly doesn't seem to have affected Marie's angelic good looks – perhaps we all should give it a try.♣

Rebecca

Photographs by Adam Cole

Rebecca is, as you can see, a bubbly blonde in the very best traditions of that wonderfully fascinating breed.

'Most guys tell me I'm a lot of fun to be with – and I'd like to think they mean that in a manner other than sexual. Let's face it, sex can be wonderful, but if the person you're with is a bit of a bore, then you soon tire of the sex and seek pastures new.

'Now me, I just love a good laugh, as long as it isn't hurting anyone. One of my favourite pranks is to go out shopping with very slinky underwear on under my dayclothes. You know the kind of thing – fishnet stockings, suspenders, lacy black briefs and low cut bra.

'Then when I'm trying something on in the changing rooms, and it doesn't suit, I'll walk out into the shop in just these undies and give all the bored husbands and boyfriends a good show. It never fails to get the eyes – and sometimes the trousers – bulging.' ♣

Victoria

'My friends call me Virgin for short – but not for long! If I hear that old chestnut one more time I think I'll scream. The trouble is it's pretty true to the mark. I lost my virginity quite early, and even now if I meet a man I fancy, I don't beat about the bush – I want to possess him right away, rush him back to my flat and get his delicious body into bed. It shocks some people, but most guys love it – it makes them feel even more big headed than they usually are.' ♣
